Welcome to Marysvale, Utah, paradise for the outdoor enthusiast! Marysvale is located at the heart of Utah's famous Paiute ATV Trail. Every direction you leave out of Marysvale ties into the miles and miles of this well maintained, beautiful off-road trail system. Marysvale has adventure waiting, ATVing, Snowmobiling, camping, hiking, bicycling, fishing, hunting, horseback riding, river rafting, gold panning, rock hounding, and exploring our famous mining ghost towns.

Photographers from amateur to professional find opportunities abound, Marysvale is surrounded by majestic mountains, unique rock formations, mining ghost towns, desert and mountain wildflowers, the Sevier River, creeks and snow run-off streams, and wildlife in all shapes and sizes.

If it's a celebration you're looking for, Marysvale has those too. July 24th Pioneer Day events include a parade, midway games, the world famous Fish Rodeo, the original Biggest Little Rodeo and an evening of fireworks. In August, Marysvale is host to the Paiute Trail UTV Jamboree held in conjunction with Marysvale Mining Day's and a Heritage Arts Festival.

If you're looking for adventures near Marysvale you will find National Parks, State Parks, National Forests, and State Historic sights, all with-in a short distance. Marysvale, Utah will surprise you with it's variety.

Come find out why Marysvale, Utah vacations keep people coming back year after year. Gather your family, pack your bags, and let us help you plan your Marysvale, Utah vacation.
Isn't it time you checked out Marysvale!